

THE OLD SCHOOLHOUSE

WINTER CONCERT SERIES

Second Saturday in January, February, March

Admission $5.00

Refreshments sold at intermission, supporting ongoing renovations of the Old Schoolhouse.

January 14, 2012

7-9 p.m.

Melissa Simonson

Inspirational, whimsical, and passionate, her music reflects her playful personality and past experiences through her melodic folk style. Melissa's music speaks directly to listeners with thoughtful lyrics and a clear, reassuring voice that travels from intimate to soaring.

Visit www.joydiva.com to learn more about her music.

February 11, 2012

7-9 p.m.

tburns

Playing and writing Americana/roots music for over 35 years, Thomas Burns has performed across the country and locally. His original songs have won many awards and received local and national airplay. He will be playing some of his original songs inspired by the Mt. Horeb area along with digging into the American Songbook.

March 10, 2012

7-9 p.m.

Graham Webster

With tenor voice front and center, his handcrafted melodies are strong and moving. A blend of finger style, driving rhythm, and on instrumentals - guitar tapping with slap harmonics, highlights his acoustic guitar style. Graham brings the people and places that have touched his life into his song writing, creating songs from the heart.